

Brittany July 2013 the first modern South Leicester MG Club Tour

We all met up at Lutterworth, two A's the Rickets and the Dorman's, two B's the Varley's and Mr Toon and two F's the Wrights and the Driver's, heading for Portsmouth with a lunch stop at Abingdon, we were traveling overnight on the ferry from Portsmouth to St Marlo. A great way of getting to France and not losing a day traveling.

The ferry docked at 0800 and we set off for our accommodation, Gwennroz, Croas, at Le Pouldu, Le Pouldu is a village on an estuary 20 miles west of Lorient, they advertise in Enjoying MG.

Some of the highlights were, Le Pouldu a charming port on the estuary, Dolan where they film the French version of Doc Martin, Concarneau a busy port with a lovely old town within fortified walls, Lorient with its U Boat pens, Port Aven a little harbour with a lovely river strewn with boulders and white water, Aurey a nice inland town with a port on the river and of cause Mont St Michel that we visited on the way back to St Marlo.

We had great weather and drove on some truly great roads having a great time with good friends.
