2023 Dates for your diary.

Who's who.

Fairfield Lake & Smite Brook Railway, Pailton. Sunday 6th August 2023.

We met at the White Horse for the drive to Pailton my son also joined the run in his Escort Cosworth with his Daughter, Father in law Mark and Dog. We arrived earlier than I think we were expected to and managed to park up without a problem on the wet ground. The only trains running were battery electric and the fire had to be lit in the boat. We had a wander round the site and Marks dog came nose to nose with the resident Labrador without any problems, the Lab was more interested in the contents of the peoples lunch and picnic bags. The smell of smoke and steam and the sound of the whistle signalled the beginning of boat rides soon to be followed by steam trains running along the rails. The Granddaughter really enjoyed the boat trip and the ride along the rails was also great so was the ice cream .The Rain held off and we all enjoyed our day.

Trip to Rutland Water – 10 August 2023

Six cars met at the White Horse at 10:30 am on a sunny Thursday morning. We set out for Rutland Water shortly afterwards, following a route through Bruntingthorpe, Kibworth, and Uppingham to Rutland Water north shore near Whitwell.

We arrived about mid day and were joined by Pip who had driven directly there from Market Harborough.

I had taken the boules set and the cricket bat and ball. After lunch the French cricket match got underway. I am not sure who won (if indeed there are winners at French cricket) but everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. After a while half time was called and we all sat down and had something to eat and drink and, as usual, the game never started again (definitely not, as the football commentators say, “a game of two halves”).

I thought Boules might be popular but they never came out of the box.

There had obviously been a lot of rain in the days before we went, judging by the puddles, but we were lucky, we had a warm, sunny day.

This could be the last trip to Rutland Water if I can find another suitable venue. Whilst I enjoyed the day, £12 car parking is over the top.

Regards, Stuart and Linda.

Marston Steam & Vintage show.

Marston Trussell Sunday 20th August

It was a very early start (8.15 am) from Lutterworth Town hall.

All vehicles present by 8.20 so lets go !! Eyes half open and passengers asleep we headed for Marston Trussell.

Derek made a lovely job of aligning all the cars in the field, ready for the tent erection!! All done , kettles on, and ladies off for some bargains.

Plenty to see and do and some of us even got to drive a steam engine (Graham P, Graham D, and Melvin all had a go.)

Some of us watched the England v Spain World Cup Final in the bar ... not the outcome we expected.

A brilliant day out, fantastic weather and a great turnout .
